

STATE OF MAINE
PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

Docket No. 2002-344

September 3, 2002

RCC MINNESOTA, INC.
SRCL HOLDING COMPANY
SACO RIVER COMMUNICATIONS CORPORATION
Request For Designation As Eligible
Telecommunications Carrier

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to the Procedural Order issued concurrently with this Protective Order,
It is hereby

O R D E R E D

1. That information regarding: (a) the billing locations of RCC Minnesota, Inc., SRCL Holding Co. Inc., and Saco River Communications Corp. (collectively, "RCC") customers by zip code, service area and/or street address; (b) the number of subscribers for each of RCC's rate plans, and (3) its radio frequency propagation maps or other indices of coverage shall be considered "Designated Confidential Information" for purposes of this Order and, until this Order is modified, access to Designated Confidential Information shall be limited as described in Paragraph 4 below.

2. That all Designated Confidential Information shall, unless removed from the coverage of this Order as provided in paragraph 3 below, be and remain confidential. Designated Confidential Information shall not be disclosed for any purpose other than the purposes of this proceeding, and then solely in accordance with this Order. No person to whom access to Designated Confidential Information is accorded pursuant to paragraph 4 of this Order shall disclose or reveal, directly or indirectly, the content of the Designated Confidential Information to others, except as provided in paragraph 4.

3. That the parties to whom Designated Confidential Information is furnished may challenge designation of any documents or other information as confidential by motion to the Commission and upon reasonable prior notice to the parties and an opportunity for hearing. Upon the entry of an order granting such a motion, the provisions and restrictions of this Order shall cease to bind any party or other person with respect to the documents or information that the Order granting the motion shall have expressly and clearly removed from the coverage of this Order.

4. That, until this Order is modified, access to Designated Confidential Information shall be limited to (i) Commission members, members of the Commission Staff and their consultants; (ii) the Public Advocate, counsel and their consultants; (iii) a stenographer or reporter recording any hearing in connection with this proceeding; and

(iv) counsel for or any other representative of RCC.

5. That no copies of Designated Confidential Information furnished by RCC shall be circulated to persons other than those persons who are authorized under paragraph 4 of this Order to obtain Designated Confidential Information. Documents offered in evidence may be copied as necessary for that purpose. Persons authorized under paragraph 4 hereof also may take such notes as may be necessary solely for the purposes of this proceeding. Those notes shall also be treated as Designated Confidential Information.

6. All materials claimed by RCC to be Designated Confidential Information under the terms of this Order shall be clearly marked "confidential" by RCC. In the case of documents, each page of any such document shall be stamped "confidential" in bold lettering in the upper right hand corner of each page including the cover letter. Any document or portion thereof not clearly and conspicuously marked "confidential" in bold lettering shall not be protected under the terms of this Order. Faxed materials should be marked as any other confidential document. With regard to other media, diskettes should be marked "confidential" on the outside and each file on the diskette should be similarly identified. Any person or party subject to the terms of this Order who receives unmarked documents or materials which he/she believes RCC intended to be protected by the terms of this Order, and that would have been protected if marked in accordance with this paragraph, shall make a good faith effort to notify RCC of this fact and to avoid use of such documents or materials in a manner inconsistent with protection of such material under this Order.

7. That the restrictions upon, and obligations accruing to, persons who become subject to this Order shall not apply to any Designated Confidential Information submitted in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Order if the Commission rules, after reasonable notice and hearing, that the Designated Confidential Information was publicly known at the time it was furnished or has since become publicly known through no fault of the receiving party.

8. That where reference to Designated Confidential Information is required in pleadings, briefs, other legal documents, or argument, the reference shall be by citation of title or exhibit number only or by some other non-confidential description to the extent possible. In those circumstances, counsel shall make every reasonable effort to preserve the confidentiality of material in the sealed record. If counsel shall include Designated Confidential Information in pleadings, briefs, other legal documents, or arguments, that portion of the documents or that portion of the transcript of the argument containing Designated Confidential Information shall be maintained under seal.

9. That should any appeal of, or other challenge to, the Commission's decision in this proceeding be taken, any portions of the record that have been sealed in accordance with paragraph 7 above shall be forwarded to the courts of this State in accordance with applicable law and procedures, but under seal and so designated in writing for the information of the court.

10. That this Order does not preclude any party from (a) objecting under the Maine Rules of Evidence to the admissibility of any Designated Confidential Information produced by RCC or (b) objecting, on any substantive or procedural ground, to any subsequent data request or other request for information.

11. That RCC may, at its option, provide to each person, other than the Commission or its Staff, having access to Designated Confidential Information a copy of this Order and require each person to agree in writing to the terms hereof prior to obtaining access to the Designated Confidential Information.

12. That Designated Confidential Information made available pursuant to this Order and made part of the record in any proceeding before the Commission shall remain in the possession of the Commission, under seal, and subject to the protective requirements of this Order, until this Commission or its authorized presiding officer shall otherwise order.

13. That this Order may be modified on motion of any party or on the Commission's own motion upon reasonable prior notice to the parties and an opportunity for hearing.

14. Copies of Designated Confidential Information and documents, notes and other materials containing or reflecting, directly or indirectly, the Designated Confidential Information, that are in the possession of Commission members, counsel or employees of the Commission may be retained by those persons for the purpose of performing those persons' duties and obligations. If retained, the Designated Confidential Information shall be subject to this Protective Order or to a protective order issued in another proceeding in which the Designated Confidential Information is used. If a Commission member, counsel or employee of the Commission does not retain the Designated Confidential Information, that person shall destroy it as provided in this paragraph. Within 40 days after the Commission reaches a final decision (i.e., unappealable) in this proceeding, each other party and Commission independent consultants and experts retained by the Commission to whom Designated Confidential Information has been made available shall destroy all documents, notes and other materials containing or reflecting, directly or indirectly, the Designated Confidential

Information. Audio, video or other such magnetically recorded materials shall be electronically erased before disposal. Documents shall be shredded.

Dated at Augusta, Maine, this 3rd day of September, 2002.
